Diddle Diddle Dumpling
by Janie Comwell

Get out a dream
Merriest Merryly Merryly
Gently down the stream
Row, row, your boat
\[\text{RED LIGHT GREEN LIGHT}\]

Diddle Diddle Dumpling, my son join,
Diddle Diddle Dumpling, my son join.

Row your boat
And right-handed Miss Muffet away
And set down beside her
Along came a spider
Eating her curds and whey
Set on a turbine
Miss Muffet

Listening to stories is one way children learn vocabulary. From growing up or something about your child's life, you can also use wordless picture books and make up a story together. With wordless books, you can develop meaningful songs with language and vocabulary skills. Make it fun. Reading with them helps them learn new words.
